Injured hiker rescued from trail near Queen's Bath Saturday

PRINCEVILLE – A female visitor from New York was rescued on a trail near Queen's Bath yesterday afternoon after injuring her ankle while hiking.

At approximately 5:20 p.m., firefighters were dispatched to a report of an injured female hiker near Queen's Bath in Princeville on Saturday afternoon.

A total of 12 personnel responded, including Rescue 3 aboard Air 1, Engine 1, and the On-Duty Battalion Chief.

At approximately 5:50 p.m., rescuers located the hiker on the trail, a quarter of a mile in, along a steep cliff face in a tree canopy.

In high windy conditions, rescuers utilized a 150-foot short haul line and Air Rescue Vest (ARV) and extracted the hiker from the trail to awaiting American Medical Response (AMR) personnel.

Rescuers cleared the scene at approximately 6:20 p.m.
