Kaua'i Department of Liquor Control now accepting online payment options for license fee renewals

LĪHU'E – The County of Kaua'i Department of Liquor Control has expanded its payment options for liquor license fee renewals, and now accepts credit card and Automated Clearing House (ACH) debit transactions.

To make a payment online, visit the Department of Liquor Control website at www.kauai.gov/liquor or click on this direct link: <http://kauailiquorpayments.ehawaii.gov/>. Additional processing fees may apply.

The Department of Liquor Control calculates a percentage fee annually for those who hold a liquor license, in accordance with Rule 4.4 of the Rules and Regulations of the County of Kaua'i Liquor Control Commission.

As a reminder, invoices were mailed to all licensees on September 15, 2022, and must be paid in full on or before October 30, 2022. Late submissions are subject to a daily penalty as outlined in the Rules and Regulations of the Liquor Control Commission.

This new paperless payment option allows businesses to conveniently make payments online and aligns with the Department of Liquor Control's goal to improve customer service. The department will continue to allow payments made via mail or in person, for those who prefer those options.
