(PAYT) TRASH
COLLECTION

Instructions for using your Automated Refuse Cart:

- The cart lid must be in the fully closed position.
- All refuse must be bagged prior to being placed in your cart.
- Do not leave trash bags or loose items next to your cart, they will not be picked up!

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: Why did the County switch to automated refuse collection service?

A: Automated collection is more efficient and less costly. It reduces worker injuries, street side litter, and improves neighborhood esthetics.

Q: What if I want to change the size of my refuse cart?

A: Call the Solid Waste Division for information at 241-4840.

Q: What happens if my cart is damaged or stolen?

A: Call 241-4840 to report damaged or missing carts. If your cart is damaged during pickup, we will repair it. If it is stolen, we ask that you file a police report.

Q: What if I want another cart?

A: If you want an additional cart, fees will apply. Call 241-4840 for info.

Q: Will I have to pay every time I go to the Refuse Transfer Stations (RTS)?

A: No, every dwelling is assessed a $6 per month base fee which helps to cover the cost of operating the RTS's.

Q: What day is my trash pickup?

A: Please visit our website at www.kauai.gov/refusecollection or call us at 241-4840.

What is “Pay As You Throw”?

A variable rate system that creates an economic incentive to reduce, reuse, and recycle!

By choosing a smaller cart (64 gallon= $10/mo) you save money and divert waste from Kauai’s landfill.
