For Kauai newspaper editor in chief Léo Azambuja would feature an October cover story on the Committee on the Status of Women. Chair Yukimura announced that HSCSW scheduled a statewide meeting for all the chairpersons for status of women and was informed that they are planning a state virtual conference later this year. This would be open to all status of women members. Administrator Ellen Ching shared that the entire staff of the Office of Boards and Commissions were called to staff two shifts for Kauai Emergency Management Agency operations. With the addition of two shifts this left staff two days for boards and commissions duties. She announced that they would not be available to provide support and this would be the last CSW meeting, it would be placed on hiatus. With this in mind she encouraged the committee to make decisions on the agenda items. Vice Chair Carvalho understood the situation and expressed concern on why it could not have been discussed as a group. She wanted to find a way to continue to meet without the support staff. Ms. Valente was disappointed and said the community of women in need required more support now than ever before. Ms. Valente asked if the committee was being disbanded and Ms. Ching answered no it was not, but it was a difficult decision to make. Ms. Ching said none of the commissions were being disbanded it was only because of the emergency situation that had been going on for eight months and no end in sight. Boards and Commissions priority at the moment was to staff and assist KEMA operations. Chair
