SECTION 19: DEADLINES

All driver's licenses and instruction permits shall expire at 12:00 midnight on the expiration dates.

An instruction permit for class 1, 2, 3 and 4 may be renewed 30 days before, or up to 90 days after the expiration date. The first day of the next one-year period shall begin with the first day after the expiration of the current instruction permit. An applicant may renew an instruction permit for class 1,

2, 3 and 4 after the applicant has passed the vision test. If a permit is not renewed within the 90 days after the expiration date, the applicant shall be treated as a new applicant for an instruction permit. For categories 1 and 2 permits, the applicant must have taken the practical examination within the one year permit period before the applicant will be allowed to renew the permit.

A provisional license must be converted to a full license by the 19th birthday. The provisional license expires on the 19th birthday. If the holder of a provisional license fails to convert by the 19th birthday, that person must reapply as a new applicant.

A driver's license may be renewed WITHIN six months prior to the date of expiration. The last day of this six-month period shall be the expiration date.

An applicant with an expired driver's license may renew the expired driver's license within one year after the expiration date. Pursuant to HRS 286-107.5, a reactivation fee shall be assessed after the 90th day of expiration. The first day of this one year period shall begin with the first day after the expiration date and shall end at 12:00 midnight one year after the expiration date. If the renewal is not initiated, or in the case of renewal by mail, the envelope is not postmarked before 12:00 midnight one year after the expiration date, the applicant shall be treated as an applicant for a new license and examined as provided in Section 286-108, Hawaii Revised Statutes.

If the one year date is a weekend or holiday for the County, the renewal, which includes payment of the required fees, must take place by the last working day prior to the expiration date or one year after the expiration date.

Class 4 Permits:

An applicant obtaining a Class 4 instruction permit is not required to take a written test, but is required to take the skills test. All skills tests passed on the initial permit will be valid and carried over to the next permit renewal. The applicant may renew as many permits as needed, provided the permit is renewable. Should the permit expire, the skills test passed on the initial permit will not be transferred.

COMMERCIAL DRIVER'S LICENSE (CDL):

The commercial driver's instruction permit shall not be valid for a period in excess of six (6) months. The applicant may renew as many permits as needed, provided the permit does not expire. Should the permit expire, the applicant must pass a re-examination of the written test, before a permit is issued. Skills tests are not transferable if the permit has expired.

The general knowledge test scores are valid for only a six (6) month period starting from the date of the test. Endorsement tests taken after the general knowledge test will remain valid up to the validation period of the general knowledge test.

To retain a hazardous materials endorsement, an applicant must take and pass (every five years), an additional special knowledge examination (in the English language) on how to recognize, handle, and transport hazardous materials. The applicant also must complete and pass a background check with the Transportation Security Administration (TSA).

SECTION 20: OUT-OF-STATE OR COUNTRY DRIVER'S LICENSE CONFIRMATION LETTER

All applicants who have a valid or expired out-of-state or country driver's license or permit must surrender those licenses or permit in order to obtain a Hawaii drivers license or permit.

Road tests may be waived if an applicant claims that their valid out-of-state or country driver's license has been lost or stolen upon submission of an official written confirmation from the appropriate driver's license issuing authority, confirming the validity and accuracy of the applicant's stolen or lost driver's license. The official confirmation must identify the applicant's name, date of birth, license number and expiration date. The applicant must also provide a valid government issued picture id for identification (passport, state id, military id).

All applicants must show a clear driving status on the Commercial Driver License Information System, the National Driver Register Problem Driver Pointer System, and other data exchange applications to determine the applicant's identity and eligibility.

SECTION 21: RIGHT OF APPLICANT OR LICENSEE TO NOTICE AND A HEARING

Whenever the Examiner of Drivers denies, cancels, revokes or suspends a permit or license, pursuant to the Hawaii Revised Statutes or these Rules and Regulations of the Director of Finance, the applicant or licensee shall have 30 days to file a notice of appeal for a hearing with the Director of Finance.

SECTION 22: HEARING

Within twenty (20) working days from the filing of such notice of appeal, the Director of Finance or a designated hearings officer shall conduct a hearing. The hearing shall be conducted in conformity with the provisions of Section 91-9, Hawaii Revised Statutes, relating to contested cases.

SECTION 23: DECISION AND ORDER

After the hearing, the Director of Finance may rescind or affirm the denial, cancellation, suspension or revocation of the permit or license. Each decision or order adverse to the applicant or licensee shall be in writing or stated in the record and shall be accompanied by separate findings of fact and conclusions of law. If any decision or order is adverse to any applicant or licensee who has filed proposed findings of fact, the Director of Finance shall incorporate in his decision a ruling upon each proposed findings presented. The certified copy of the decision and order and accompanying findings presented. The applicant or licensee shall be notified by delivery or mailing of a certified copy of the decision and order and accompanying findings and conclusions within a reasonable time to each applicant or licensee or to his attorney or record.

SECTION 24: RECONSIDERATION

Any applicant or licensee to whom an adverse decision and order has been rendered by the Director of Finance may request a reconsideration of such adverse decision and order provided that such request shall be based on new evidence which was not considered by the Director of Finance during the original hearing.

SECTION 25: APPEAL TO CIRCUIT COURT

Appeal of the decision and order or ruling rendered in the hearing shall be as provided by Section 286-129, HRS.

SECTION 26: CANCELLATION OF LICENSES AND PERMITS:

In addition to the provisions contained in Section 286-120, HRS, the following shall be reasons for cancellation of licenses or permits by the Examiner of Drivers:

1. Cheating on any administered test;
2. Switching testing material;
3. Substitution of another person during the processing and/or testing phases;
4. Use of non-authorized written materials (dictionaries are allowed).

The cancellation shall be for thirty (30) day period for any infraction of this section, and re-application shall be permitted after such period.

A second infraction of any of the above shall result in a cancellation for a sixty (60) day period.
