REAL PROPERTY TAX CLASSIFICATION RULES

Administrative Rules of the Director of Finance Relating to Real Property Tax Rate Classifications under Section 5A-6.4 of the Kauai County Code 1987, as amended.

§RP-12-1 Purpose. These rules implement the provisions of Section 5A-6.4 of the Kauai County Code ("K.C.C.") relating to tax rate classification. These rules are further intended to ensure that the referenced provisions are applied in a uniform and equitable manner. These rules and any definitions in these rules apply only to K.C.C. § 5A-6.4.

§RP-12-2 Authority. These rules are promulgated pursuant to K.C.C. § 5A-1.2(j) under the Director of Finance's authority to effectuate the purpose of K.C.C. § 5A-6.4.

§RP-12-3 Retroactive effective date. These rules shall be effective and applied retroactively to the furthest extent allowable by law.

§RP-12-4 Definitions. As used in these rules, except as otherwise required by context:

"Actual use" means how the owner uses the property as of the date of assessment.

"Definite established uses" includes categories of actual uses included in a general class, but the general class is not limited to the included definite established uses.

"Living unit" means an apartment, condominium, house, portion of a house, or structure occupied by a household.

This also includes month to month tenancy, if it is the same tenant for at least one hundred and eighty days. Rental agreements must be signed by the owner, signature by the owner's agent is not sufficient.

"Owner" is defined in K.C.C. § 5A-7.1.

“Place of business” means a structure where a person engages in a trade or business evidenced by customer parking, client traffic, advertising, or signage.

“Productive” means producing a benefit or income, which depend on the physical attributes, locational attributes, legal entitlements, or improvements.
“Short term rental” means a residential rental agreement for a period of less than one hundred and eighty days.

§RP-12-5 Procedure. Real property shall be classified into a general class provided in K.C.C. § 5A-6.4 for tax rate purposes. Assignment to a general class is based on the actual use of the property on October 1st preceding each tax year.

§RP-12-6 Clarification of general classes. The general classes are defined and definite established uses for tax classification are provided. The definite established uses provided are not exhaustive. If a property’s actual use is included in the definite established uses, the property shall be assigned to that class. If a property’s actual use is not found in the definite established uses, or a definite established use is not provided, the definitions as well as definite established uses are to be read together to properly classify a property.

- (a) “Residential” includes use as a residence.
 - (1) Definite established uses: long-term rental, second home exclusively used by the owner(s), vacant residential structures, and a part time residence not occupied as a principle residence.
- (b) “Vacation rental” includes the renting out of an apartment, condominium, living unit or house on a temporary basis to a person(s) as an alternative to a hotel for a period of less than one hundred-eighty consecutive days.
 - (1) A property subject to the Hawai’i Transient Accommodation Tax, other than those classified as Hotel & Resort, will be considered a vacation rental.
 - (2) Advertising of any sort which offers a property or portion of a property as a vacation rental or short term rental shall constitute prima facie evidence of the operation of a vacation rental.
- (c) “Commercial” includes the use of the property to generate income, monetary gain or economic benefit.

churches, schools, recreational enterprises conducted for profit, amusement enterprises conducted for profit, ceremonial enterprises conducted for profit, places where commodities or services are offered for sale, and spa facilities.

(2) The retail sale of products grown and sold on agricultural lands does not constitute a commercial use, unless a commercial use permit is granted. However, the retail sale of any other product constitutes commercial use.

(3) Commercial use does not include a home office as defined in these rules.

(d) "Industrial" includes pertaining to manufacturing or processing, including the performance of mechanical or chemical operations.

(iii) Non-resident and part-year resident State of Hawai'i income tax returns do not qualify for the home exemption.

(2) Properties that have multiple living units must have owner-occupants with qualified home use exemptions and long-term affordable rental occupants in the other living units to be eligible.

(3) Principal residence properties that have either agriculturally dedicated lands or licensed day cares located on the same property and no other additional uses may be eligible.

(4) A home office, defined in these rules, may be included in a homestead.

(i) "Residential Investor" is a classification for residential properties that do not qualify for the home exemption, are improved with a dwelling unit(s), not vacant land, and have an assessed value of two million dollars ($2,000,000.00) or more.

(a) "Vacant land" means unimproved land, or a portion of the property verified by a special use permit, that lacks the essential appurtenant improvements required to make it productive.

(b) The following general classes are zonings for vacant land and actual uses: residential, commercial, industrial, agricultural, and hotel and resort.

This includes structures with completion between twenty percent (20%) and sixty nine percent (69%). Completion percentage is determined by the “Appraisal and Component Rating Worksheet for Incomplete Buildings” incorporated into these rules by reference. This worksheet is available from the Real Property Assessment Division.

(b) At seventy percent (70%) completion, actual use may be established.

§RP-12-9 Criteria to change tax classification. The following proof must be submitted, if applicable, to the Real Property Assessment Division by September 30th of the year prior to the desired change.

§RP-12-11 Severability. If any provision of these rules or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of these rules which can be given effect without
