2. The owner's ownership is recorded at the Bureau of Conveyances in Honolulu on or before September 30 preceding the tax year for which the exemption is claimed;

5. The owner may not hold a homeowner's exemption or claim a principal home on any other property, whether on Kaua'i, in the state of Hawai'i, in another state, or in another country. Possession of multiple homeowners' exemptions for any given tax year shall result in the revocation of all homeowners' exemptions within the County of Kaua'i for those periods in which the multiple homeowners' exemptions were held. Adjustments and rollback taxes due to the loss or denial of an exemption shall be imposed in accordance to K.C.C. Sec. 5A-11.1(e) and 5A-3.4.

Property owners may reapply for a homeowner exemption in the tax year following the revocation;

7. Property taxes related to this parcel are considered current. No home exemption shall be allowed if taxes on the property are delinquent unless the taxpayer has entered into a payment agreement with the Director and the taxpayer meets the terms of said agreement.

Section RP-10.4 Criteria for determination of "principal" home or residence. In addition to all other applicable requirements of K.C.C. Sec. 5A-11.4 and its implementing administrative rules, the director will rely on the following criteria to determine whether real property is being used as the owner's "principal" home or residence:

1. The address used for Hawai'i residential tax returns, driver's license, car and voter registration, bills and correspondence;
2. Presentation of a valid Hawai'i Driver's License or Hawai'i State ID; and
3. Amount of time used at this residence, which shall be based on a more than 270 calendar days per year (the calendar year shall begin on the date of assessment, October 1, and end on September 30 of the following year).

In addition, an owner who has temporarily moved into a care home that is licensed in Hawaii may have the owner's property deemed a "principal" home or residence provided he does not rent the property or permit new individuals (other than immediate family members) to reside at the property and meets all other applicable requirements K.C.C. Sec. 5A-11.4.

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, in the event the owner of real property vacates the home for which an exemption is granted and moves to another residence temporarily within the County during the renovation of the home, the real property will continue to be entitled to the exemption contained in this section provided that:

- a. The taxpayer submits to the director a change in status report regarding vacating the home during renovations which identifies:
  - i. The building permit number issued by the County building division;
  - ii. The renovation start date as indicated on the building permit;
  - iii. A verifiable address within the County where the taxpayer will reside during the renovation period and where the assessment notices will be mailed; and
  - iv. The value attributed to the renovation will reset the assessment cap basis.

Section RP-10.5 Forms. To determine whether an owner qualifies or, if already received, continues to qualify for an exemption pursuant to K.C.C. Sec. 5A-11.4, the director may require an owner to complete a form that requests information relevant to the exemption and/or to produce relevant documents. Should the owner fail to complete the form entirely or fail to provide the requested documents or fail to respond, the director may refuse to permit the exemption or, if applicable, disallow the exemption. After reviewing the form or documents, the director may require the owner to provide additional information, if the director deems it necessary to determine if the owner qualifies or continues to qualify for the exemption.

All requested forms shall be due within fifteen days of being mailed to the owner's last known address, unless otherwise provided by law. It is the owner's responsibility to keep the Real Property Division current as to the owner's last known address.

Section RP-10.6 Effect of Home Exemption. Once it is determined that an owner is entitled to a home exemption for the property, the owner shall receive the exemption as provided K.C.C. Sec.5A-11.4(a) Where a home exemption is a prerequisite to other exemptions or special treatment, an owner may also receive those exemptions or special treatment as permitted in Chapter 5A, if applicable and if the owner meets all other necessary requirements. For example, pursuant to K.C.C. Sec. 5A-11.4(a) home exemptions may be granted to properties that qualify under the criteria for "principal" home or residence (RP-10.4), but which may also have additional uses. However, for the determination of the appropriate tax classification per K.C.C. Sec. 5A-6.4(c) & (e), only those properties that are used exclusively as "principal" homes or residences shall qualify for the homestead tax class. Should the entire property be occupied for short-term accommodation or used for commercial activities at any time during the assessment year, the property shall not qualify for a homestead tax classification.

Section RP-10.7 Appeals. The owner may appeal any disapproved exemption, or any determination that an exemption has been violated, just as an appeal from an assessment. Appeals shall be governed by applicable section of Chapter 5A, K.C.C., and may be taken to the board of review or be taken directly to the tax appeal court, without having to appeal the board of review.

Section RP-10.8 Severability. If any provision of these rules, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of these rules which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of these rules are severable.
