

WARNING: NIGERIAN SCAM ON THE INTERNET

Below is an email I received from Mr. Japhet Owraigbo, more than likely a bogus name. If you receive an email or any other type of communications similar to this one, please disregard. This is a derivative of the Nigerian Scam. They will take your money and you won't receive a single penny.

Mahalo. Chief Perry

From: JAPHET OWRAIGBO <japhetowraigbo@gmail.com>

Date: August 25, 2014 at 11:20:40 AM HST

To: undisclosed-recipients;

Subject: CONFIDENTIAL

Greetings,

Here with you is Mr. Japhet Owraigbo, the Head, Finance and Treasury at Abuja Investments Company Limited (AICL) Abuja, I decided to contact you based on a business proposal which will be of great benefit to both of us, I am the Head, Finance and Treasury at Abuja Investments Company Limited (AICL), Abuja. I am currently working with the company under the world Sovereign Wealth Funds (SWF) I and some of my close and trusted colleagues need your assistance in the transferring the sum of twelve million four hundred thousand us dollars {$ 12. 4 million USD} into any reliable Account of which you may nominate in your country. This fund was generated from over-invoicing of contracts executed by the (AICL) and (SWF) under our control and supervision.

This fund is now ready to be remitted into any Account we put forward to the bank for that purpose. What we want from you now is a good and reliable company or personal Account into which we shall transfer this fund. Details should include the following: 1. Name of Company, Address, & Your Private Telephone, & Fax Number. 2. Name of Bank & Address of Bank .3. Account Number 4. Beneficiary Name, upon receipt of your details, an application shall be made in your name to the bank over here where the money was deposited for the approval of the remittance of the funds which shall be by SWIFT (Telegraphic transfer) copies of the approval and other relevant documents shall be forwarded to you for your perusal. Please treat as strictly confidential for obvious reasons.

The fund will be shared as follows: 30% for your assistance 60% for myself & my Colleagues 10% for contingency expenses, We wish to assure you that your involvement should you decide to assist us, will be well protected, and also, this business, proposal is 100% risk free as the remittance will be made through the legal procedures. Note: your discussions regarding this transaction should be limited because we are still in government service. We intend to retire peacefully at the end of this transaction. Let honesty and trust be our watchword throughout this transaction and your prompt reply will be highly appreciated. Thank you for your anticipated cooperation while we look forward to a mutually benefiting business relationship with you. I await your immediate responds.

Regards.

Mr. Japhet Owraigbo
Head, Finance and Treasury
Abuja Investments Company Limited (AICL)