Lāwa'i man who died in early morning crash identified

LĀWA'I – The 20-year-old Lāwa'i man who died in a single vehicle early morning traffic crash on June 29 has been identified as Bradyn Hoff.

According to a preliminary investigation, Hoff was heading westbound in a 2004 silver Toyota pickup truck around midnight on Piko Road in the vicinity of the Konishi Road intersection in Lāwa'i when he failed to negotiate a curve in the road, crossed the centerline onto the eastbound shoulder and crashed.

Speed appears to be a contributing factor in the crash and toxicology results are still pending.
