Household hazardous waste collection set for Jan. 26 and 27

County officials are announcing that residentially-generated household hazardous waste (HHW) will be accepted free of charge on Jan. 26 and 27.

Among the items that will be accepted are automotive products, lead-acid batteries, lawn and garden products, oil-based paints, thinners and stains, fluorescent lights, batteries, and more.

The collection will take place from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the following locations:

- Anaina Hou Community Park (Kīlauea Mini-Golf), 5-2723 Kūhiō Highway, Saturday, Jan. 26
- Kapa'a baseyard, 4900 Kahau Road, Saturday, Jan. 26
- Hanapēpē refuse transfer station, 4380 Lālē Road, Sunday, Jan. 27
- Kaua'i Resource Center, 3460 Ahukini Road, Sunday, Jan. 27

In addition, latex paint will not be accepted, as it is not considered household hazardous waste.

For instructions on how to dispose of latex paints or how to dispose of HHW items on your own as well as a list of acceptable HHW items, please visit the county website at, www.kauai.gov/hhw.

Please note, monthly mobile eWaste service in Hanapēpē and Kīlauea will continue as normal with service at the Hanapēpē baseyard on Saturday, Jan. 26, and Anaina Hou

Community Park on Sunday, Jan. 27. Please do not bring household hazardous waste to these events or eWaste to the HHW drop sites.

If there any questions or concerns about either event please call the County Solid Waste Office at 241-4841.
