Police investigating unattended death in Līhu'e

LĪHU'E – A 59-year-old man with no permanent address was found dead Thursday morning in a parked vehicle at the Vidinha Stadium parking lot, in Līhu'e.

His identity is being withheld pending notification of next of kin.

According to police, a County of Kaua'i employee discovered the man dead in his vehicle at approximately 8:15 a.m. and called police. After an on-scene investigation, the man was transported to Wilcox Hospital, where a medical doctor formally pronounced him dead.

An autopsy is pending. However, police do not suspect foul play in the cause of his death.

The investigation remains ongoing.
