Traffic pattern to be modified at Black Pot Beach Park parking lot starting Oct. 15

HANALEI – The Department of Parks and Recreation is announcing that the traffic pattern for the Black Pot Beach Park parking lot will be modified starting Oct. 15.

“We thank the public for your continued patience, as construction in the area is taking place,” said Department of Parks and Recreation Director Patrick Porter. “Traffic pattern signs in the area will be posted for all park goers. Additionally, flagman will also be directing traffic.”

To view the traffic pattern for the Black Pot Beach Park parking lot, please see the map below.
