Industry Day set for Oct. 23

The Federal Emergency Management Agency in partnership with the County of Kaua'i will be hosting Industry Day at the Kaua'i Emergency Management Agency on Oct. 23 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

"FEMA is reaching out to local and small businesses who may be interested in assisting before, during and after disasters," said KEMA Administrator Elton Ushio. "This event will help Kaua'i business to be better prepared to work with FEMA, as well as state and local government partners, creating a win-win situation for businesses and whole-community emergency management."

Speakers at this event include representatives from FEMA, KEMA, the Office of Economic Development, and the Kaua'i Chamber of Commerce.

Registration is free; however, registration is required. Interested businesses may email csakai@kauai.gov to register.

If you need an auxiliary aid/service or other accommodation due to a disability, contact Chelsie Sakai at 241-188 or csakai@kauai.gov as soon as possible.

Requests made as early as possible will allow adequate time to fulfill your request. Upon request, this notice is available in alternate formats such as large print, Braille, or electronic copy.
