Explanation for proposed charter amendments available online

LĪHU'E – Kaua'i voters will have the opportunity to decide on four proposed charter amendments in the coming general election.

The four questions that will appear on the general election ballot, proposed by the Charter Review Commission, are as follows:

1. Shall the County Charter be amended to require that future elections for prosecuting attorney occur at the same time as the County's regularly scheduled elections?
2. Shall the Charter be amended to remove article 30 which allows the County Council to create an electric power corporation?
3. Shall the Charter be amended to give the Salary Commission the authority to establish the maximum salary for elected and appointed officials?
4. Shall the Charter be amended by removing the portion of Section 19.17 that requires surety bonds for certain officers and employees?

To assist voters with making informed decisions, the Charter Review Commission has provided background information and the purpose of each proposal. To review all proposed changes to the Charter, please go to <https://kauaiballotinfo.com/>. The public may also pick up a free copy of the proposed charter amendments at the Office of Boards and Commissions located at the Līhu'e Civic Center, Pi'ikoi Buidling, 4444 Rice Street Suite 300, in Līhu'e, during normal business hours Monday to Friday, between 7:45 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., except on holidays.

If you need an auxiliary aid/service or other accommodation due to a disability, contact the Office of Boards and Commissions at 808-241-4917 as soon as possible. Requests made as early as possible will allow adequate time to fulfill your request. Upon request, this notice is available in alternate formats such as large print, Braille, or electronic copy.
