

Hawaii Agriculturalists,

HDOA has been the intersection of many great ideas/messages from wonderful organizations and individuals – with the intent of linking products for sale TO buyers interested in buying – and – forming new relationships with suppliers.

Please register your products via this link:

Your information will be added to the master list which will be widely distributed to – supermarkets, distributors, food hubs, food service industry, manufacturers, and others in the food/distribution supply chain– so they can contact you for more information.

Thank you for providing the information to consolidate the information and make it available to buyers statewide.
