1986 Amendment
The Charter of The County of Kauai

Section 23.02B:

"B. All members of boards and commissions shall be appointed and may be removed by the mayor, with the approval of the council, except that members of boards and commissions established by ordinance may be appointed and removed as provided by ordinance. Such ordinance shall provide for either of the following appointing and removal methods:

1) Appointment and removal of members by the mayor, with the approval of the council; or

2) Joint appointing powers under which the mayor and the council each appoint an equal number of members, and one additional member is selected by the members previously appointed by the mayor and council. Members appointed by the mayor may be removed by the mayor with the approval of the council. Members appointed by the council may be removed by the council with the approval of the mayor. The one additional member selected by the previously appointed members may be removed by the mayor with the approval of the council.

A board or commission member who is absent from three consecutive meetings without prior excuse of the chairman shall be expelled from membership. Upon notification of such expulsion by the chairman, the applicable appointing authority shall within 15 days of the notice, begin the appointment process."

This amendment to Sec. 23.02B of The Charter of The County of Kauai was duly adopted by the voters at the November 4, 1986 General Election.

CERTIFICATE OF RESULTS
CHARTER AMENDMENT
COUNTY OF KAUA'I

I, Peter A. Nakamura, County Clerk of the County of Kaua'i, do hereby certify that the following charter amendment was duly adopted by a majority of the votes on the question at the General Election held on Tuesday, November 2, 2004, in the County of Kaua'i:

1. (1) Shall the Kaua'i County Charter be amended by the addition of a new Article XXXI to read:

ARTICLE XXXI. RESIDENT PROPERTY TAXES. Section 31.01.
Resident Property Taxes.

It is the policy of the County that resident taxpayers should be equitably protected when there are significantly rising real estate values and government costs. Therefore, for County residents who have owned and occupied their place of residence beginning in or before the fiscal year 1998-1999, then for the next fiscal year after the adoption of this section real property taxes with respect to such residence shall not exceed the amount of such tax assessed for the 1998-1999 fiscal year. For County residents acquiring their place of residence after the fiscal year 1998-1999 their real property taxes with respect to such residence for the next fiscal year after the adoption of this section shall not exceed the amount of tax assessed for the fiscal year the ownership and residence commences. For all such taxpayers in no fiscal year after the year in which the tax was restored to the amount in 1998-1999 or the year of acquisition, whichever is applicable, shall the percentage increase in real property tax with respect to such residence exceed the lesser of the percentage rate applicable at the commencement of such fiscal year for cost of living adjustments in retirement benefits by the Social Security Administration, or two percent (2%). Promptly following its adoption the County shall notify in writing all owners of residential property in its property tax records of the principal terms of this section. The County shall adopt such ordinances, laws, rules and regulations as are necessary to carry out and are consistent with the purpose of the foregoing policy and the terms of this section.
