STATE COMMISSION REPORT

- Update from the Hawai'i State Commission on the Status of Women Commissioner Ignacio Neumiller.

EXECUTIVE SESSION.

Under Hawaii Revised Statutes §92-4, the commission may hold executive meetings close to the public upon an affirmative vote, taken at an open meeting, of two-thirds of the members present; provided the affirmative vote constitutes a majority of the members to which the board is entitled. Any meeting close to the public shall be limited to matters exempted by section 92-5. The reason for holding such a meeting should be publicly announced and the vote of each member on the question of having a meeting closed to the public shall be recorded and entered into the minutes of the meeting. Under Hawaii Revised Statutes §92-7(d), after posting the commission meeting agenda the commission may add an item to the agenda, including an executive meeting closed to the public, by an affirmative two-thirds recorded vote of all members to which the board is entitled; provided that no item shall be added to the agenda if it is of reasonably major importance and action thereon by the board will affect a significant number of persons. Items of reasonably major importance not decided at a scheduled meeting shall be considered only at a meeting continued to a reasonable day and time.

ADJOURNMENT:

cc: Charles Foster, Deputy County Attorney
