Lane closures on Kūhiō Highway near Kapa'a Safeway scheduled Jan. 10 to 14

KAPA'A – The Department of Public Works is announcing that construction is scheduled from Jan. 10 to 14, on Kūhiō Highway in the vicinity of Safeway in Kapa'a.

The construction work will include asphalt concrete paving, pavement striping and installing of pavement markers. Hours of construction will be from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Lane closures will be necessary, but two-way traffic will be maintained. Please use caution and obey all traffic controls, posted signs, and special duty police officers while driving through the construction work zone area. Please allow additional travel times in anticipation of delays.

Should you have any questions or concerns prior to or during the construction, you may contact Global Specialty Contractors Inc., at (808) 843-8881 or Chad Alcos at (808) 756-5518.
